

Shira Kline, Full Bio

SHIRA KLINE, aka ShirLaLa is a celebrated New York based performer and music educator. Traveling across the country and internationally with her kiddie rock band, Shira delivers a dynamic, interactive program of joy and spirit, story and song. Raised in the world of music and the tradition of Torah, Shira has worked for over a decade with a diverse array of Jewish communities to enliven rituals, holiday celebrations, and love for Jewish life and prayer. Blending words, story and music she creates a rich experience for children and adults alike. ShirLaLa has performed in a variety of venues including the Skirball Cultural Center in Los Angeles, The Toronto Ashkenaz Festival, The Jewish Museum on Fifth Avenue, the Alyeska Resort in Alaska, and Limmud Conferences in England and Los Angeles. Her three “outrageously hip Jewish kiddie rock” albums have sold over 20,000 copies and are played repeatedly in homes, cars, and classrooms. Find them at ShirLaLa.com along with “Blog Sameach,” an educational resource center for parents and teachers full of original coloring pages, recipes, stories, project ideas and more. Shira is also a founding company member of Storahtelling: Ritual Theatre Revived with which she is an actor, writer, performer, and ritual leader. Shira’s newest eco-music recording, “Earth Worm Disco,” nourishes the brain, body and heart. Original and imaginative music, stories and games that connect children to environmentalism.
