

בְּדִיקַת חָמֵץ

B' di-KAT Cha-METZ

Chametz is all of the bread-like foods made with yeast that we do not eat on Pesach. The night before Pesach, it's fun to do b'dikat chametz, a final search for any crumbs left in the house. We use a candle for searching and a feather and wooden spoon for gathering the last bits of chametz.